GOLD STANDARD!

Welcome to the future, 200 years from Sonic and the Freedom Fighters' present!

Silver the Hedgehog and his new friend, Professor Von Schlemmer are on a race to save their world from a disastrous force of nature—the Genesis Portals! The portals are shards of broken reality that threaten to tear apart all of space-time... or worse!

Although the Onyx City Council didn't seem interested in helping, mysterious telepathic messages guided Silver and Von Schlemmer to a secret ally within the Council—Gold the Tenrec! She knows what's coming, and she'll do anything she can to stop it!

But the rest of the Council have revealed their true colors and captured our intrepid trio—will they be able to escape the Council's clutches?

Then again... the Council may be the least of their problems...

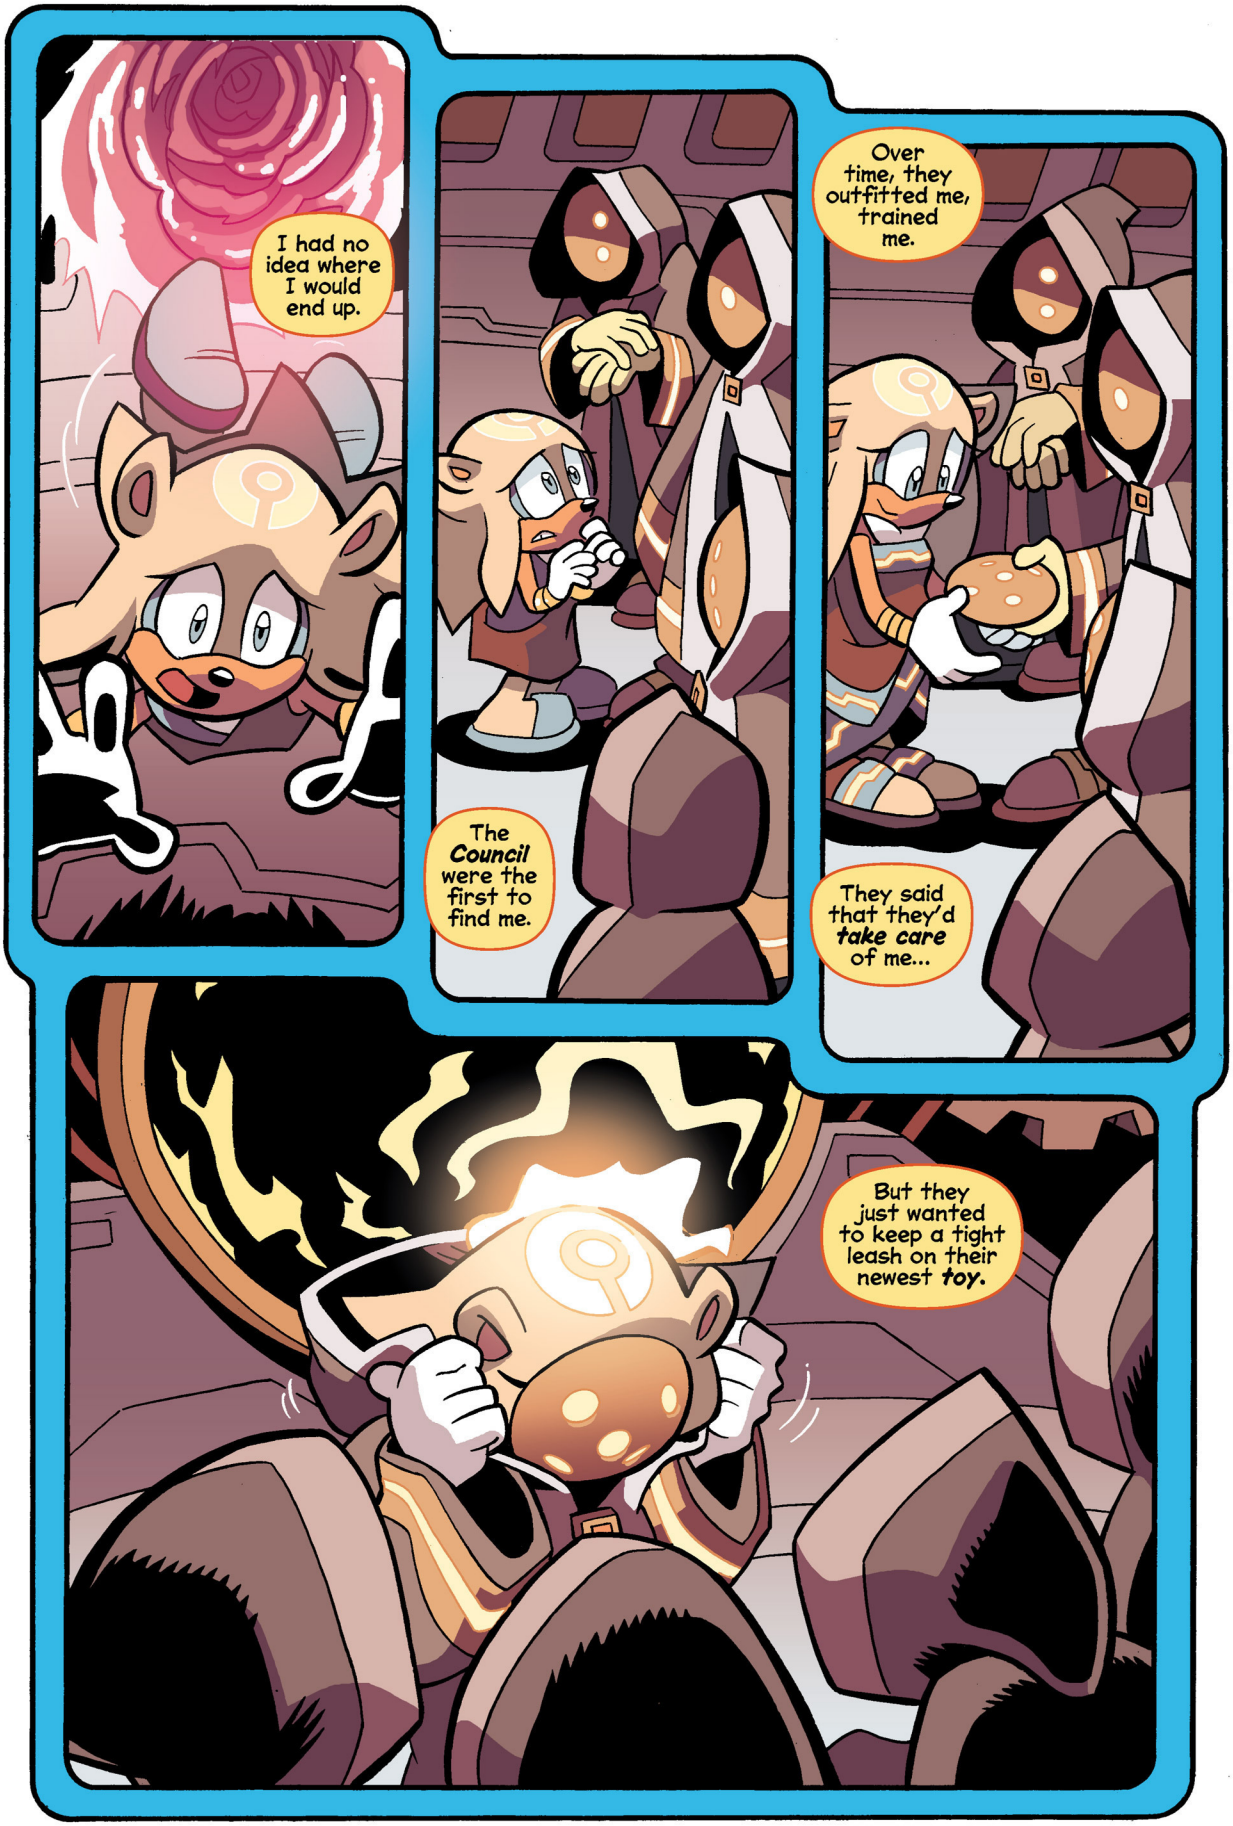
WHAT'S HAPPENING? WHAT IS ALL THIS?!
When it took my city, my world...
All I could do was run.



I had no idea where I would end up.
The Council were the first to find me.
Over time, they outfitted me, trained me.
They said that they'd take care of me...
But they just wanted to keep a tight leash on their newest toy.

It was all I could do to keep them from taking my mind, too.
WE CAN'T STOP IT. IT'S NO USE.

GOLD
THE TENREC
(lesser hedgehog tenrec)
Notes:
·Head is built on an oval
·Clumsy in action
·Naturally nervous, often tries to hide it
·Having left arm bent helps keep sari up, and emphasizes drape
(powers active)

BELOW: Evan Stanley's model sheet for the Bits' first appearance. The Bits are loosely based on the virtual hedgehog simulator part of Sonic Colors.

BITS
VIRTUAL ROBOTICS
The Bits are a trio of tiny robots. Extremely energetic and always eager to help. They're great at their job as Prof. Von Schlemmer's custom-made lab assistants... except when their mischievous side gets the better of them!
Although they're three individuals, the Bits' computer brains are connected and they're constantly communicating with each other. As learning robots they're very curious and clever, but they're very young; they have yet to develop much in the way of individual quirks.

Hey, Sonic fans!

Holy hedgehogs! How crazy was that issue? The Second Devourer is terrifying, and even more so now that it's on the loose!

Tracy Yardley and the the whole Universe team did a great job playing up the ominous aspects of this issue. In fact, the characters and location of the entire "Silver Age" story have a pretty mysterious and dark feel to them. Writer Evan Stanley put a lot of thought into incorporating those themes into her writing and when designing the new characters featured in this story. Take a look behind the scenes and into the past with these production illustrations and references for the "Silver Age"!

Pretty cool, huh? Well there's more where that came from, but not 'til next time!

See y'all next month in Sonic Universe #82 for the BIG "Silver Age" finale!

Dear 'My Sonic Universe,'
I have questions about Silver!

And I'm just the letter column answerer super buddy-fella-pal to tackle your serious questions with equally "serious" answers!

1) Who are Silver's parents?

Nobody knows... wiggles fingers and makes dark, ominous noises*

Some say Silver has no parents! Others say he slunk from the primordial ooze! Some even say he came from a future timeline to stop the Androids from... wait, that's another story entirely, nevermind!

2) Are his parents still alive in the future?

Of course not! It's the far future so, naturally, they haven't been born yet!

3) How did Silver get his powers?

He was bitten by a radioactive psychic.

4) What are your thoughts on Silver?

I prefer bismuth. Its naturally occurring geometric rock designs speak to me.

5) Who do you like the most out of Sonic, Shadow and Silver?

Knuckles.

6) I think Silver and Blaze should be a couple! Don't you think that both of them are super cute together?

From Silver's biggest fan
Keira R. sent to
Sonic@ArchieComics.com

Not at all, Keira. Now Shadow & Amy—those two are a cute couple! I do wonder what their "shipping name" would be though... Shadamy? Amadow? Shadose? Shamy? Sheboygan? Shamalamadingdong? Sha—

Dear 'My Sonic Universe,'
I've been the biggest Sonic fan geek since I was 8. The comic books really compliment the Blue Blur. I've been collecting issues since June 2012 and I'm still picking them up! My favorite pencil artist is Tracy Yardley! His pencil drawings look almost identical to the games. My favorite female character is Amy Rose. She is the best fashionable, hammer-swinging pink hedgehog out there! Just as awesome as Sonic the Hedgehog! Keep up the good work, Archie Comics!

Thank you for your kind letter, Ashley! It's fans like you that keep us motivated!
We hope you enjoy everything to come!

Dear 'My Sonic Universe,'
I love your comics! They are 900,000,000,000,000,000,000 times better than anything else on the shelves! Please give my regards to Tracy Yardley and Ian Flynn!

Wow! That is some high praise! Tracy and Ian are great guys with amazing talent and skill! I'm sure they'll appreciate the well-wishes and cheers from super fans like you!

I have a few questions for you. First, when were the Freedom Fighters redesigned and where was Sally deroboticized?

Their new designs, along with the new universe, were a direct result of the reality-breaking Super Genesis Wave, shown at the end of the Worlds Collide crossover available now in 3 graphic novel volumes! The FF's reintroduction was covered in Sonic the Hedgehog vol. 1 "Countdown to Chaos," also available now!

What species are Sally and King Acorn?

Sally is a chipmunk (note the stripe on her back that goes down to her tail) and her dad, King Acorn, is a squirrel.

Lastly, wasn't Bunnie flesh and blood thanks to Naugus and what does she mean by "Sho'nuff"?

Keep up the awesomeness
Ben A. sent to
Sonic@ArchieComics.com

Well, Ben, Bunnie's deroboticization by Naugus was also undone with the Super Genesis Wave and "Sho'nuff" is a southern colloquialism, short for "Sure enough"!

Well... sho'nuff, jus' like that, we'll see y'all next issue! Ain't that a hoot? Hoo-wee!
